

Chorus Norms

2016-2017

1. We will be always present in the music

- when other sections are singing, review or listen
- leave the outside world at the door
- #LOMO
- stay mindful and engaged, put effort into focusing

2. We will use technology by invitation only

3. We will be responsible for our own learning

- prepare your own part
- always be prepared for class (water, pencil, music, brain)
- maintain self-awareness in singing, actions, and comments
- push yourself and take positive risks
- remember that chorus is an academic class

4. We will take responsibility for positively impacting the chorus and school community - follow the three Cs: Character, Citizenship, Community

- respect others and be aware of their needs
- be encouraging
- listen attentively to speakers and performers
- respect the personal space of yourself and others

5. We will be mindful and respectful of the music, rehearsal time, and performances

- keep an open mind and reverence for the music's culture
- respect and protect materials
- chorus is a judgement-free zone
- arrive on time, stay in class, use time well
- practice like you perform

6. We will be professional during performances

- preparedness
- timeliness
- behavior
- attire

7. We will be positive ambassadors of PRHS and the music program

- remember that public appearances reflect upon you, the music program, and the school

8. We will have FUN!
